

Security & Emergency Management

Client
IBM

Location
Various Locations, USA

IBM Security Enhancements

Project Description

CH2M HILL's expertise in security was recognized by the international computer giant, IBM, when CH2M HILL was granted a sole-source contract to design security enhancements for all of the firm's mission critical national data centers. The work included upgrades to the existing security command centers, provision of biometric recognition devices, high-security doors with specialized infrared detectors to prevent "tailgating," access control systems, and CCTV systems.