

International

Northern Latin America

Client
Cargill

Location
Tula, Mexico

Engineering and Procurement Support of Solar Turbines for Cargill

Project Description

CH2M HILL Lockwood Greene de México has assisted Solar Turbines in Detail Engineering services and procurement support for a Cogeneration Plant for Cargill in Central Mexico. The gas- fueled Taurus-70 Turbine installed will generate 5.5 megawatts at 23 KV. Program elements included:

- Provided complete construction documentation.

Features

- State-of-the-art US technology combined with first hand knowledge of Mexican construction methods, procedures, and materials, through CH2M HILL Lockwood Greene Mexico